Dear Editor of Jurnal Script,

Thanks for your email. The title you shared was wrong, but the file attached in the email was correct.

The correct title was Investigating the Realization of Speech Function in a Speech through Systemic Functional Linguistics Perspective

I'll do the revision as soon as possible.

Thank you

Regards,

Herman

Dear author

It is required to include at least 20 citations from reputable journal articles in your paper (as primary sources). The introduction should include previous research. Afterwards review the findings of previous studies in the discussion.
